PLENARY SESSIONS

CLIMATE CHANGE AND NATURAL AREA MANAGEMENT

WEDNESDAY 8 NOVEMBER 2023

City of Armadale - Main Administration Building | 6 - 8pm

Join Associate Professor Judy Fisher as she discusses key ideas, supported by the latest international science, on how to move forward as a community to improve outcomes for the natural world and people during a period of rapid change.

If you are passionate about the natural environment and interested in climate change and its impacts on biodiversity then don't miss the opportunity to hear firsthand and ask questions from the experts.

Bookings are essential via Eventbrite by 31 October. For further details and to book visit armadale.wa.gov.au/plenary-sessions or contact 9394 5000.

MENTAL HEALTH AWARENESS 2023

The City of Armadale is co-hosting two Boost Your Wellbeing workshops, in partnership with HelpingMinds. The workshops are an hour long, and focus on resilience, self-care, and support services.

Tuesday 10th October - 1.45pm - Armadale District Hall
Thursday 12th October - 1.45pm - Novelli Pavilion, Piara Waters

IS YOUR FURRY FRIEND REGISTERED?

If you share your home with a four-legged friend, you may receive a notice in the post advising your pet registration is due to be renewed by 31 October.

All dogs over the age of three months, and cats from the age of six months, must be microchipped and registered with your local Council. Registrations run from 1 November and expire on 31 October every year.

Claw back some time by renewing your animal registrations online!
It's easy, simply go to armadale.wa.gov.au
