

Residential Design Codes Variation Application

This is not an application for Planning Approval.

An application for a single house, outbuilding, patio or retaining wall is to be made on this form if an application for Planning Approval is not required under the Local Planning Scheme and the proposed development involves one of the following:

- The exercise of a discretion by the City under the Residential Design Codes
- The exercise of a discretion by the City under a Local Planning Policy made in accordance with the Local Planning Scheme

To confirm whether a Residential Design Code Variation application should be made, please contact Building Services.
