

Hotdog Book Competition

Do you like writing and drawing?
Would you like to be a published author/illustrator?

Enter our Hotdog Book competition as part of the Armadale Arts Festival and you could win a set of books in one of three categories.

Using one piece of paper, children can create their own book with a few simple folds.

Every child can be an author by writing and illustrating their own story. The books are published on the spot using a colour photocopier and the author gets to keep the original book.

A panel of judges will review the entries and choose the winners.
