

Volunteer Fire Brigades

Keeping the City of Armadale safe for 80 years

Fire has kept us warm, cooked our food and been the centre of social gatherings for thousands of years.

Fire can also destroy our lives and communities in an instant.

This exhibition is the story of the local volunteer fire brigades whose members have given their time and risked their lives to help protect our communities.

Open from November 2024 until 30 April 2025

History House Museum
