

Zero Waste Bathrooms

What is zero waste? Mariska, an artist, environmentalist and host of the Mama Earth Talk podcast, will discuss what zero waste is and how to reduce waste in the bathroom.

Take a look at some of the pesky plastics that hide in our bathrooms. Everything from plastic bottles to micro plastics. Mariska will share her top tips and switches and help you take the first steps towards a zero waste bathroom.

Mariska's journey started by experimenting with waste in her art pieces. Once she became aware of the harm many of her single-use habits were causing, she couldn't go back. Her goal is to be a catalyst for change and to help everyone make better choices for the environment.
