MAYOR'S Message

Welcome to our 83rd edition of City Views. The cooler weather is well and truly here which means we've entered the Noongar season of Makuru (June and July).

We are currently developing a new Local Planning Strategy 2024 to determine the future direction of land development in the City of Armadale. This strategy will guide Council in making decisions about land development, including such things as housing density and recreation and environmental reserves. We are seeking community input to develop the strategy and you have the opportunity to share your opinions on housing for an increasing population, growing business and employment opportunities, protecting the environment, and developing the City's parks and facilities.

The City recently installed solar PV systems on three of our major buildings as part of our commitment towards net zero emissions by 2030 – full details can be found on page 2.

Local businesses, such as Seadragonz Swim School in Forrestdale, are also committed to environmental sustainability and I encourage you to visit switchyourthinking.com for tips on how you can make the change to reduce your environmental footprint. To find out how Seadragonz Swim School is reducing its footprint, see our story on page 6.

It's been another challenging few months with the latest COVID outbreak continuing to impact our State. I encourage everyone to be patient with our local businesses and volunteer-run organisations at this difficult time. Like most industries and sectors, we've been hit with staff shortages across the City as COVID sweeps through the community. I want to acknowledge the situation is certainly being exacerbated by an inability to fill vacancies in WA (we have the lowest jobless rate in Australia). So please remember to be patient and kind – we will get through this eventually and I look forward to things returning to 'normal' soon.

Mayor
Ruth Butterfield

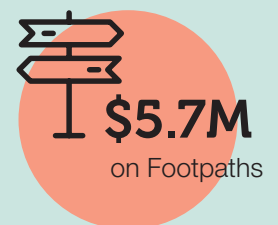

Meeting the future needs of your City

Council recently endorsed the Corporate Business Plan (CBP) 2022/23 – 2025/26 which will allow the City to build on its strengths and capitalise on opportunities to make our community an even more desirable place to live and work.

Some notable key projects identified in the CBP include building a new library in Piara Waters, the replacement of the pavilion at Morgan Park and the redevelopment of the Forrestdale Sporting Hub.

OUTDOORS & ACTIVE

BMX PARK NOW OPEN

The John Dunn Challenge Park is a gateway into the serious mountain bike trails on offer in the Armadale and Perth Hills.

Since opening in April the $1.6 million state-of-the-art bike track is proving hugely popular with bike enthusiasts and caters for cycle-based activities for a wide range of ages and abilities.

The park has something for everyone offering pump tracks for beginners and advanced riders, jump tracks at beginner, intermediate and advanced/extreme levels, skills loop, bike playground, and a mountain bike skills trail around the park's perimeter.

The City funded $1.33M for the impressive project which was topped up by a Sporting and Recreation Facilities Grant.

LEADING THE WAY WITH SOLAR TO SAVE $$

Solar PV systems are being installed on three of the City's major buildings, as part of our commitment towards a carbon reduction target of net zero emissions by 2030.

"Using renewable energy for our major buildings is a significant move to reduce our carbon footprint," said Mayor Butterfield.

Once installed at the Champion Centre, Orchard House and the Armadale Fitness and Aquatic Centre the solar panels will generate over 1 million kWh of energy per year. This is equivalent to the annual energy use of 144 average Australian houses, and will save the City and our tenants approximately $200,000 in annual electricity costs.

Other efforts to reduce the City's carbon footprint, include purchasing renewable energy for contestable sites⁺, operating a landfill methane flare, and undertaking a feasibility study to retrofit street-lighting with LEDs.

The solar panel installation was made possible through $1 million funding from the Australian Government through the Local Roads and Community Infrastructure Program.

⁺ Contestable sites are those using in excess of 50mWh of electricity, and account for approximately 70% of the City's total consumption.

ARMADALE ARTS FESTIVAL

Wrap up!

This year's Armadale Arts Festival was an incredible success as the City delivered a captivating program of live music, visual arts, literature, arts and crafts, showcasing the incredible talent around this region and also brought some of our State's greats straight to Armadale!

This year we focused on showcasing some great assets within the local community by pairing with the Western Australian Youth Jazz Orchestra and Seven Sins for 'A Journey through Jazz'.

The festival concluded with the Community Choir Performance led by this year's Festival Artist, Bree Hartley.

Guest performers Cathie Travers and Rachel John (Classic Sounds Orchestra) also performed at the event.

"I loved the variety of ideas and mediums used in the art pieces and the exceptional talent, all brought together in one place to enjoy,"

— CULTURE COUNTS SURVEY RESPONDENT

"I joined the Choir because I love singing and singing as part of a choir is an immensely gratifying experience. I have known and worked with Bree for many years and knew that this project would be magical." said Allison Harrison, choir participant.

"As a local community group and youth arts education organisation, we were so pleased to be invited to perform as a part of the Armadale Arts Festival. We look forward to many more collaborations between WAYJO and the City of Armadale in the future."

MULTISPORTS Try something new!

Would your child like to try a new sport?

If they are yet to discover their passion for sport, this free seven (7) week program is just for them.

In an effort to increase participation and reduce barriers for community access to sporting opportunities and local clubs, the City has partnered with Communicare to deliver this program, which was a great success last year.

Piara Waters resident, Stacey Knott, says the City’s Multisports program has given her children a chance to try different sports, meet new people, and the opportunity to keep fit and active outside their normal sporting activities.

“Taj and Kennedy love to try new things. They had an amazing time at the Multi-sports sessions at Harrisdale during term 4 last year.

“Naturally, they loved the rugby sessions as they’re both junior members of the ARKS Rugby Club.

“Multisports was great because it gave them the chance to participate and learn more about other sports before committing to an entire season.

“Taj really enjoyed the cricket sessions, whilst Kennedy preferred athletics. They’re both keen to give them a go next season.

“I highly recommend Multisports. It’s a great way to get the kids moving, and finding out what they like. It’s an amazing initiative within the community,” Stacey said.

Keep an eye on the City’s website for details on the next round of Multisports.

NEW BUSINESS Investment Prospectus

The City has prepared a new Business Investment Prospectus to encourage and facilitate economic development in Armadale.

Armadale's strategic metropolitan centre advantages of a rapidly growing population, strong transport links, accessible and affordable land, a diverse workforce, and the semi-rural hills lifestyle make Armadale a unique and robust location for investment.

The key industries of opportunity include Health Care & Social Assistance, Education & Training, Construction, Tourism and Manufacturing.

Through developing this Business Investment Prospectus along with streamlining internal approval processes, the City continues to deliver economic and social benefits for its residents.

This document is available through the City's website:

SEADRAGONZ – A SWITCHED ON BUSINESS

Congratulations to Seadragonz Swim School in Forrestdale in winning a Switched On Business Award for their commitment to environmental sustainability and for reducing the environmental footprint of their business.

Seadragonz Swim School has shown strong commitment to environmental sustainability in a number of ways. These include recovering and recycling 100% of the water used at the facility; using ultraviolet lighting as the primary water disinfectant; switching to solar energy; having a mindset about minimising waste; and looking for options to reuse and recycle across the business, all while educating customers about sustainability practices.

The awards run by Switch your Thinking are a great way to recognise, reward, and celebrate businesses that have significantly reduced their environmental footprint and excelled in taking innovative steps along their sustainability journey.

If you are a local business (or know of a local business) that has taken great steps to become more sustainable, consider applying for the next round closing 5 July 2022.

NATIONAL TREE PLANTING DAY

CALLING ALL GREEN THUMBS

to connect with nature

- JOIN US: Saddlers Retreat, Kelmescott
- DATE: Sunday 31 July
- TIME: 9am to 12 noon

Everyone is welcome to join the City's National Tree Day planting event.

The City in partnership with the Armadale Gosnell's Landcare Group (AGLG) is seeking volunteers to assist with planting seedlings, to support the development and implementation of re-vegetation and habitat creation, along the beautiful Djarlgarra (Canning River).

We have over 4000 native seedlings to plant – so many hands are required again this year.

Despite bad weather last year, our volunteers turned out with their wellies, coats and gloves to roll up their sleeves and participate in Australia's largest community tree planting and nature protection event.

Volunteers should bring gloves, a water bottle and wear appropriate clothing for the weather conditions on the day.

Meet other local residents and enjoy some light refreshment at the conclusion of the event – provided by the Armadale Kelmescott Lions Club.

The project is supported by funding from the Department of Biodiversity, Conservation and Attractions DBCA's Riverbank Program.

NAME A WASTE TRUCK

The recent kids' competition to name our new waste trucks attracted over 70 entries.

The kids put a great deal of thought into naming the new fleet, with a variety of names suggested. Some of the names were funny such as TurBINator, because "it will be back" and others were meaningful, such as Matilda as this year we are proud to have employed our first female waste truck driver!

The children can look forward to seeing their suggested names printed on the new trucks when they arrive later this year.

Congratulations to our winners:

- Luke (2 years): BINjamen
- Elise (7 years): Matilda
- Angelina (8 years): Dale
- Matthew (10 years): TurBINator
